

The EHOA offers something for everyone from owner riders eventing at the lower levels to owners of horses on the three day circuit

How the EHOA works for me

Marian Green

55 year old owner/rider, eventing at BE 100 level

"Friendship and training. I've made so many friends since I began going on the camps and courses, and I'm riding better now than I ever have done - which must be down to the quality of instruction."

Henry Womersley Smith

19 year old owner/rider, university student, aiming for Young Rider squad selection

"The training and access to top trainers is fantastic. I've been lucky enough to win a training award and owner/ rider of the year award too."

Louise Pearson

34, freelance instructor, eventing at BE 100 level

"I regularly go on training courses with the EHOA, and come away with fantastic ideas which I can also feed back into my work. Plus getting to know trainers like JP Sheffield and Kenneth Clawson means they're always happy to offer tips when I meet them at events."

Sharon Hunt

4* rider, and her parents Janice and Terry who own several of her horses

"It's great to be part of an organisation which recognises what owners put into the sport and stands up for them."
Janice and Terry Hunt

"I like being part of the EHOA both as a rider, and because they offer a great service to my owners - linking them into a group of like minded people and offering them great facilities at the big events."

Rosemary Search, owner
Opposition Buzz, rider Nicola Wilson

The hospitality at the big events is fantastic. Somewhere to sit, have a drink, meet friends and the membership fee is amazing value. Nicola and her parents are also members so we can meet up in the tents and go to the annual dinner together"

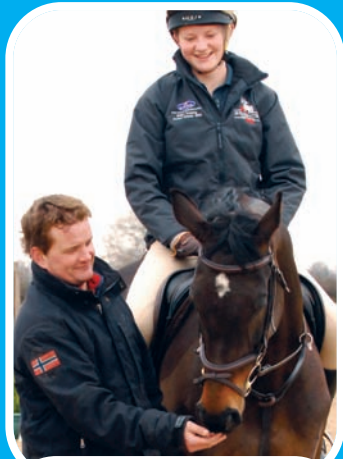

George and Jayne Apter, owners Idalgo, rider William Fox Pitt

"The EHOA is a brilliant organisation and costs so little for so much. I cannot imagine why all owners are not members as the EHOA has so much to offer, excellent hospitality, meeting great people, standing up for owners"

JP Sheffield

4* rider and EHOA trainer

"I recommend all my owner to join as it's great for them to be part of an organisation which represents them and offers great facilities at events. It's also rewarding watching the people I train do well on the circuit."

What EHOA trainers say...

Rob Stevens

4* rider and EHOA trainer

"The EHOA? Great bunch of like minded people who really enjoy the training and the sport."

Nigel Taylor

4* rider and EHOA trainer

My owners enjoy the benefits of the EHOA - it's very beneficial for owners and riders coming into the sport.

Kenneth Clawson

EHOA trainer

"I really enjoy training the grass roots members. At camps they come and have dinner in my house and there's always a great sense of camaraderie. It's fulfilling for me being part of their learning curve."
